

8.6 Advisors and other acknowledgements

The commissioners and secretariat gratefully acknowledge the many advisors who provided input to help shape the report, feedback on draft sections, and ideas for path analysis to influence:

- COVID-END partners (see section 1.5 as well as the COVID-END partners webpage)
- funder representatives (see section 8.4)
- co-organisers of a number of events where draft sections and/or Evidence Commission recommendations were discussed, including:
 - ‘Cochrane Convenes,’ which was co-organised by Cochrane, COVID-END, and the World Health Organization (WHO)
 - Engaging Evidence 2021, which was co-organised by Cochrane, GIN, GRADE and JBI centres in Australia and New Zealand
 - Baï-Sheva de Rothschild webinar on re-thinking the path from evidence to decision-making, which was co-organised by IS-PEC and WHO’s Evidence to Policy and Impact Initiative
 - Global Evidence-to-Policy Summit, which was organised by WHO’s Evidence-Informed Policy Network

For Arabic, the Knowledge to Policy Centre, American University of Beirut, with oversight provided by Fadi El-Jardali

For Chinese, the Institute of Health Data Science, Lanzhou University, with oversight provided by Yaolong Chen, Xian Y., and Qi Wang

For French, the McMaster Health Forum, with oversight provided by François-Pierre Gauthier

For Portuguese, Fiocruz Brasília, with oversight provided by Jorge Barreto

For Russian, the Russian Medical Academy for Continuing Professional Education, hosting Cochrane Russia, with oversight provided by Liliya Egenyevna Ziganshina, Ekaterina Yudin, and Dilara Nurkhametova

For Spanish, the Unit for Evidence and Deliberation for Decision Making in the Faculty of Medicine of Universidad de Antioquia (UdeA), with oversight provided by Daniel F. Patiño-Lugo.