Call for Applications for Three (3) Undergraduate Student Fellowships

The McMaster Health Forum is an independent, faculty initiative that strives to be a leading hub for improving health and social outcomes through collective problem solving. Operating at the regional/provincial level and at national levels, we harness information, convene stakeholders and prepare action-oriented leaders to meet pressing health and social issues creatively. The Forum acts as an agent of change by empowering stakeholders to set agendas, take well-considered actions and communicate the rationale for actions effectively.

As part of our commitment to prepare action-oriented leaders in addressing pressing health and social challenges creatively, we offer the McMaster Health Forum Fellows Program, an exceptional o and ively;

2) meet the many health and social system stakeholders who will be participating in Forum events, which can include (among others) concerned citizens, heads of associations, hospital CEOs, deputy ministers of health, and World Health Organization (WHO) directors;
3) develop a work plan that helps to advance the aims of the Forum and a development plan that will ensure that the fellowship experience supports the fellows' personal development in five areas including policy analysis, political analysis, systems analysis, evidence synthesis and stakeholder engagement;
4) lead a project related to the student panels program; and

Application deadline and timeline for notifications:

1) Applications must be submitted electronically to James McKinlay (kinlayj@mcmaster.ca) by 1:00 p.m. on Friday 21 February 2020.
2) Interviews for shortlisted candidates will be scheduled soon after the deadline
3) Preliminary notifications will be sent to successful applicants in early April 2020, and these successful applicants will be given 10 days to notify us whether they will accept the offer and, if so, to confirm that they are not on one or more wait lists for professional school admission in September 2020

Terms of the Fellowship:

1) $40,000 payable in instalments throughout the duration of the Forum Fellowship
2) economy airfare and ground transportation costs associated with travel to and from the Forum location (if applicable)

For more information about the McMaster Health Forum, visit our website at www.mcmasterhealthforum.org