Department, Unit or Project Description:

The McMaster Health Forum's Lab engages a diverse range of faculty members, research staff, students and collaborators to undertake cutting edge research and research synthesis about how to support the use of research evidence in health systems. The Forum's Lab capitalizes on the numerous research and evaluation opportunities created by the Forum's innovative programs and by its partners internationally, which collectively provide a 'natural laboratory' within which to study innovations in supporting evidence-informed health systems.

Research spearheaded by the Forum's Lab has led to publications in many top journals, to presentations at major scientific conferences, and to the creation of innovations like Health Systems Evidence – the world's most comprehensive free access point for evidence to support policymakers, stakeholders and researchers interested in how to strengthen or reform health systems or in how to get cost-effective programs, services and drugs to those who need them.
